Today, in Christ Church Cathedral, Ottawa, a small number of Bishops, other clergy and lay people will gather to consecrate The Very Reverend Shane Parker as our new Diocesan Bishop. Normally, the cathedral would be filled to capacity for this event but these are not normal times. Please pray for Bishop-elect Shane and for all our people as we continue to struggle with the pandemic both here in our own country and throughout the world.

Our Metropolitan Archbishop, Anne Germond, who will be the main consecrator at today’s event, has sent out a pastoral letter on the safe re-opening of our churches for worship which is attached to this bulletin. I urge everyone to read it and share its contents with those who we can only reach by phone.

Continue to keep safely in touch with everyone. Reach out to those who need help, or just need to share thoughts, fears or concerns. There will be an end to this difficult time but not yet. Stay firm in the faith that God is with us every step of the way.

Peace be with everyone of us.
