In our prayers today, we give thanks for this harvest season of God’s goodness in nature and in our gardens.

We give thanks, also for all who are in a time of healing and restoration after various health challenges.

We give thanks for all medical personnel and care givers who have worked so hard over the last year to alleviate suffering and to minister to those who have suffered and died.

We give thanks for all scientists and medical researchers who have worked so hard to provide effective and safe vaccines for all of us.

We pray for those who mourn and grieve the loss of loved ones. May they be comforted.

We pray for our children and young people as they prepare to return to school. May they all be kept safe from harm.

We pray for the clergy of this parish, for Mark Lewis as he assumes the leadership of this parish, and for Pat Martin and Fran Aird as they assist in ministry.
